ORDER:

In the Government Orders first to fourth read above, Government announced certain relief measures like payment of last pay drawn, exgratia, providing compassionate appointment, etc. to the dependent family members of police personnel/ Government servants of other departments and non-officials killed by extremists/anti-social elements. It was also ordered therein for payment of exgratia if the victims were either incapacitated or seriously injured in the violence caused by extremists/anti-social elements. In the G.O. fifth read above, Government issued modified orders limiting the benefit provided therein only to the cases of the victims of extremist violence.

2. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, in his letter sixth read above, has stated that there are instances of police personnel killed in the attacks by anti social elements while performing legitimate duties. With the issue of G.O. fifth read above, their families cannot be sanctioned any of the benefits. Further, he has stated that terrorism is also posing a major threat to the security in Andhra Pradesh. In the violence perpetrated by terrorist organizations, several innocent people were killed. Some Police Officers/men engaged in anti terror operations became martyrs or injured. There is a need to provide relief measures to the victims of terrorism on par with the victims of extremist violence. He has, therefore, requested to examine to provide benefits to the victims of terrorism on par with the victims of extremist violence and also to consider to amend the G.O. fifth read above, so that the benefits sanctioned in the G.O. first read above, are applicable to the Policemen/Officers killed in violence by antisocial elements.

3. The proposal of the Director General of Police has been examined carefully. After thorough examination only, earlier in the G.O. fifth read above Government directed that the financial assistance and the benefits provided to the families of the deceased police personnel/Government officials of the other Departments in the G.O. first read above are limited to the cases of extremist/Naxalite violence only and not applicable to the cases of victims of violence caused by “anti-Social elements”. Therefore the proposal of the Director General of Police to reconsider the earlier decision in this regard, cannot be considered in Government.

4. However, Government hereby extend the benefits ordered in the G.Os first to fourth read above, to the victims of terrorist violence. These benefits are however not applicable to the victims of anti social elements.

5. The District Collectors concerned shall take necessary action for providing benefits in such cases at their level in consultation with the Superintendents of Police/Commissioners of Police concerned.
6. The expenditure towards the benefits sanctioned to the Police Personnel and the Government Officials of other departments, who are victims of Extremist/terrorist violence, shall be debited to the relevant salary head of account of the administrative department.
7. The expenditure towards benefits sanctioned to the civilians/non-officials, shall be debited to "2235 – Social Security and Welfare - 060 - Other Social Security and Welfare Programmes – MH 200 – Other Programmes – SH 11- Other Exgratia Relief - 310- Grants-in-Aid -312- Other Grants-in-Aid," in relaxation of Treasury Control Orders pending provision of funds by obtaining Supplementary Grants to the extent of expenditure incurred on this account.
8. All the Collectors & District Magistrates are hereby authorized to sanction relief of exgratia to the above mentioned cases and also to draw the amount by way of an Abstract Contingent Bill and disburse the amount to the victims concerned and regularize the expenditure through D.C. Bills as expeditiously as possible. They shall intimate to Government in General Administration (SC.A) Department as to the particulars of expenditure incurred in this regard every quarter.
9. These orders shall come into force from the date of issue of the Order.
10. This order issues with the concurrence of Finance Department, vide their U.O.No 291650/636/Exp.GAD.I/10, dt: 6.11.2010.
